Thank You

I would like to take this time to say, “Thank You”. I have genuinely appreciated being a participant of M.O.R.E. This program has given me even the more insight of very valuable information pertaining to what employers seek in a potential employee, budgeting down to the penny, and additional resources, just to name a few. I would and will encourage others to become motivated enough to at least give this program a try; because you will not know, until you do so. By partaking in such an opportunity will possibly open doors in your life that you never knew existed, stimulate you enough that you will inspire others to jump on the bandwagon and of course bring awareness that the sky is not the limit.

Along this sweet, yet short journey, I have been greeted by a team of people/co-workers that contributes their time and skill to show their sincerity, compassion and consideration for others.

Again, I say Thank You many times over for a wonderful opportunity to each and every one of you, as a team and individually for whom you are, what you do and for the vision and/or thought someone had enough spirit to put into action, because they had not only me in mind, but many that are alike.
